Thursday October 5, 2006:

(Day Facilitator: Adele M. Morrison)

Shuttles from hotel to Law School at 2:30pm to 4:30pm (dropoff – Barrick, Lot I)
(Hotel pick-up/drop-off point is the North Tour Lobby of the Flamingo)

3:00 – 3:30pm: Welcoming Reception
Law School, 2d Floor Foyer or Balcony

3:45 – 4:15pm: Greetings and Introductions
Everyone in the room is asked to briefly introduce themselves, and the organizers will explain the Workshop's basic design.
Facilitator: Christian Halliburton
Law School, Room 203

4:30 – 5:15pm: LatCrit/SALT Principles and Values
The workshop opens by introducing participants to the foundational principles and core values of LatCrit and SALT. This session will include brief presentations on critical outsider jurisprudence; progressive, socially conscious legal academia; and LatCrit and SALT basics on theory, principles, goals and values. After the presentations, the session will turn to open discussion and questions/answers.
Presenters: Tayyab Mahmud
Law School, Room 203

5:30 – 8:30pm: Working Dinner: On professionalism service and balance.
*Constructing Life as a Law Professor (with an emphasis on life).
Over dinner, we turn to the basics of professionalism in the context of the North American legal academy, including key questions on institutional politics, "collegiality" and similar topics that are central to academic success. We hope that you will join us in strategizing around achieving success in the legal academy (however defined for each individual and institution) while simultaneously balancing the numerous demands upon our time and energy.

Presenters: Kevin Johnson
Margaret Montoya
Camille Nelson
Reggie Oh

Law School, Room 203

8:45 – 9:30pm: Just Juniors*: A Rap Session

We will provide an opportunity for the untenured, newly hired, and newly tenured to talk and for workshop planners to get specific feedback on the evening and hear what junior faculty want to have addressed in the following days' sessions. Come with questions, concerns or comments to share verbally or in writing. Anonymous questions will be collected as well. We encourage continuation of these important discussions as we transition to the LatCrit Hospitality Suite.

*How can you tell if you are a junior? Ask yourself the following question: Am I fairly comfortably situated in the legal academy, and did I enter the academy before 1998 (That's eight years give or take.)? If so for the purposes of this session, we are sorry (or proud) to say you are no longer a junior.

Moderators: Christian Halliburton
Catherine Smith

Law School, Room 101

(Hotel pick-up/drop-off point is the North Tour Lobby of the Flamingo)

8:30 – 9:00am: Breakfast Buffet

Tam Alumni Center (Drop-off – Tam, Lot V by guardhouse)

9:00 – 9:15am: New Hellos and Setting the Agenda

We briefly begin by re-introducing ourselves to one another, including newly-arrived folks, and then turn to laying out the day's agenda.

Facilitator: Camille Nelson

Tam Alumni Center

9:15 – 11:15am: On Scholarship: What to Write, How to Finish

We will begin with brief presentations by a "clinical" professor and two "doctrinal" professors (tenured and untenured) on how to (1) identify a scholarly agenda, (2) conduct/oversee research, and (3) "close" a project.

Presenters: Angela Onwuachi-Willig

Beth Lyon

Emily Houh

Bob Chang

Tam Alumni Center

11:30 – 2:00pm: Working Lunch—On Pedagogy: "Best Practices" for Critical Teaching

This working lunch will focus on teaching techniques, including the basic elements of a critical pedagogy in both clinical/experiential and traditional/classroom settings. The working lunch will feature brief presentations on basic rules or norms and practical advice on teaching related issues. It will also address issues of "activism" and "protest" in the classroom and in teaching in general that may have an effect on how students view and evaluate professors. This session will be followed by an open discussion and questions/answers.

Presenters: Holly Maguigan

Roberto Corrada

Mario Barnes
